

In fairness to Senator Kerry, NBC ran a good hour show on Bush and BCCI. C-Span had a 3 hour program featuring Sarah McClendon and Brian Lamb showing the drug trade and routes Bush put together. It's about time the media tried running some news, not this crap their doing. If anyone read a book about Vietnam, World War II and others, you'll see the different positions and how a person encounters fear and how one has to be dehumanized to kill. Many others were killed in brutal ways, by our people and continue today. Try showing news about Abu Ghrab and Russian Prisons. Soldiers are schooled on torturing, including our own.... We have such a corrupt government and you're just adding to it.

To use this method of by passing FEC rules, again we have Bush and his people leading the way in a corrupt way. Of course the FCC is run by Colin Powells son, again a total control of rights.
